Why Pandas have two circles around their eyes.

A long, long time ago, there were three Pandas named Billy, Johnson and Mike. They lived in the forest. They looked like big, fat cats. Johnson and Mike hated Billy very much.

One day, Johnson and Mike laughed at Billy. “Billy, you are short! HA! HA! HA!”

Billy was angry. He fought with Johnson and Mike. Billy hit Johnson’s and Mike’s eyes. Johnson and Mike hit Billy’s eyes too. At least, they got two circles around their eyes. They were unhappy.

From that day on, all Pandas had two circles around their eyes.
